

Contemporary Worship Coordinator

We're Community United Methodist Church in Crofton, MD, and we're looking for a Contemporary Worship Coordinator for our 9 a.m. contemporary service. This is a part-time position (15/20 hours per week).

The desired candidate will work closely with our pastor and praise band and become a visible presence within our church family. The worship coordinator will select songs and create a musical environment to draw our congregation into worship. The coordinator will schedule and lead weekly band rehearsals, Sunday performances, attend weekly staff meetings and manage a budget. Occasional attendance at evening meetings may be requested.

Required skills and talents include:

Musical:

- Strong voice able to sing lead or back-up
- Well-developed skills on guitar or keyboard
- Ability to read music is a definite plus

Worship & Biblical:

- Firm scriptural knowledge and the gift to communicate and share in a manner that leads people into worship
- Experience in leading contemporary musical worship & prayer
- Knowledge of basic theological affirmations of the UMC is desirable

Leadership:

- Mentor band members individually and collectively
- Provide performance guidance to assist each person to grow in their music worship
- Develop on going congregational recruitment process to deepen and broaden the band's talent resources
- Work closely with our pastor to select songs that support each sermon's theme and electronically distribute the songs to band members in a timely manner

Interested candidates should submit the following required elements for consideration:

- Professional resume/CV
- Brief written description of personal faith journey
- Recorded sample (audio or visual) of musical skills (voice and instrument)

Video samples of worship leading are welcome but not required.

Please send complete application packages to:

Dana Buckwalter at CUMC9worship@gmail.com

All job offers will be contingent upon passing a background check