First Time Here?

Welcome! We are so glad that you're here! In the pew rack in front of you, you'll find a Welcome Card that will help answer some of the questions you may have. You will also find a Connect Card, which allows us to follow-up with you, pray for you, and help to get you connected into the community. If you have further questions, please don't hesitate to ask an usher or someone sitting in the pew next to you.

Current Sermon Series

"Movies are our way of telling God what we think about this world and our place in it. . . . Movies can be many things: escapist experiences, historical artifacts, business ventures, and artistic expressions, to name a few. I'd like to suggest that they can also be prayers." (Josh Larsen). Movies do more than tell a good story. They are expressions of raw emotion, naked vulnerability, and unbridled rage. They often function in the same way as prayers, communicating our deepest longings and joys to a God who hears each and every one. In his book, Movies Are Prayers, Filmspotting co-host Josh Larsen brings a critic's unique perspective to how movies function as expressions to God of lament, praise, joy, confession, and more. In August, we'll use Josh's book as a springboard to explore three current and one not-so-current movies and how they express our deepest longings for God. God's omnipresence means that you can find him whether you're sitting on your sofa at home or in the seats at the theater. You can talk to him wherever movies are shown. And when words fail, the perfect film might be just what you need to jump-start your conversations with the Lord. You are invited to meet God in the movies, and start-up a conversation with the God who created us, beings with thoughts and feelings who need to bring both to God. Our series is Movies Are Prayers. We'll dive into Babe, the Pig, Shazam, The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind, and Yesterday.

Sermon Notes

Suggestions for note taking from “Listening to a Sermon” by Dr. Keith Anderson—Follow a simple framework to listening to the voice of God: What words, phrases or ideas did you connect with? Why? Was there anything that disturbed you or felt unsettling? Why? What did you hear that you want to know more about? What questions does this raise for you? Finish this sentence: If I take this seriously, then that would mean _____.

9:00 a.m. Contemporary Worship

Where's the order of service at 9:00? Our 9:00 service is pretty simple in order, so just follow along on the screen. We'll sing, spend some quality time with our children, then sing and hear a message. On First Sundays, we celebrate communion. We offer an open table, so the only thing we ask before partaking is that you hunger for more of Jesus Christ in your life. (Parents may choose whether to allow their children to participate in communion.) Finally, an offering is collected at the close of the service.

* Passing the Peace

"Let All Things Now Living"

TFWS 2008

*Let all things now living a song of thanksgiving to God the Creator triumphantly raise;
who fashioned and made us, protected and stayed us,
who guides us and leads to the end of our days.
God's banners fly o'er us; God's light goes before us,
a pillar of fire shining forth in the night,
till shadows have vanished and darkness is banished,
as forward we travel from light into light.*

* Call to Worship

based on Psalm 107:1-9 (NIV)

One: Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;

Many: his love endures forever!

One: Let the redeemed of the Lord tell their story -

Many: those he redeemed from the hand of the foe!

One: Those he gathered from the lands,

Many: from east and west, from north and south!

One: Some wandered in desert wastelands,

Many: finding no way to a city where they could settle.

One: They were hungry and thirsty,

Many: and their lives ebbed away.

One: Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble,

Many: and he delivered them from their distress!

One: Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love!

Many: and his wonderful deeds for humanity!

One: For he satisfies the thirsty

Many: and fills the hungry with good things!

* Centering Prayer

O God, Maker of all things, with your fingerprint and signature on everything You've made.
How often do we fail to notice Your handiwork? How often do we forget to look for You in life?

Forgive us, O God. We have not sought you, nor have we listened for Your voice, nor watched for your glory. How could we miss You? Teach us anew to number our days, to make prayer our very breath, to let all our thoughts and emotions rise into Your presence - as a fragrant act of prayer, without ceasing.

May we learn through this series that you are ready to speak to us at any time and any place.

Open our eyes, our ears, our hearts to Your life-giving word.

In Christ the word, through whom all things were and are made. Amen.
